

Great Commission – Ready, Set, GO!

Matthew 28:16-20

"Faith requires struggle. Don't be surprised if your belief is a continuous conquest of unbelief."

(Karl Barth)

"I am with you always" is the promise of the faithful presence of the

_____.

Jesus didn't tell them anything new. He repeated what they had already seen and heard.

Jesus instructs His disciples to _____ & make _____ THIS IS THE PLAN!

Jesus' authority as King of kings is the WHY behind the plan – it's because He said so. And He is worth your obedience.

A GOOD AFTERTASTE:

Ruminate on God's Word this week and meditate on what the Holy Spirit wants to say to you using the following thought-provokers.

The Gospel writers each had a focus throughout their books concerning who Jesus was. In Matthew He was the King of kings. In Mark, the Servant of the Lord. In Luke, the Son of Man. And in John, the Son of God. As you read the Gospel accounts pay attention to see that focus highlighted in what is recorded and how it's applied.

In your everyday life, where are you already going and to whom could you be reaching out to with the Gospel of Jesus, our King?
